- 3.2 FOURSQUARE MOVEMENT. Persons who have voluntarily joined together under the authority of the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel to propagate and disseminate the religious principles embraced in the Foursquare Gospel as set forth in the “Declaration of Faith,” compiled by Aimee Semple McPherson, founder.
- 3.3 FOURSQUARE CHURCH. Any local body of believers in the United States, which is established and operated in accordance with these Bylaws and accepted by Board action. A Foursquare church may be a Charter Foursquare church, a District Foursquare church or a Covenant Foursquare church. Charter and District Foursquare churches are not separate legal entities. They are subordinate units of the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel. Covenant Foursquare churches are separate legal entities. Each Foursquare church is organized and operated to carry out the ecclesiastical and evangelistic endeavors of the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel. Each local church is accepted by Board action. All are affiliated with International Church of the Foursquare Gospel by these Bylaws and/or other covenants.

- A. Charter Church. A church established and chartered by International Church of the Foursquare Gospel as a local Foursquare church or a church not previously established by International Church of the Foursquare Gospel which has elected to become a local Foursquare church having no legal existence, articles of incorporation, bylaws or other organizing documents apart from those of the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel and which has transferred title to all of its property into the name of the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel with no possibility of reversion unless specifically agreed to by the Board.
 - B. District Church. A local Foursquare church that has not yet developed to the point of being granted Charter or Covenant status pursuant to these Bylaws. A District church shall not be authorized to establish or operate a separate legal entity.
 - C. Covenant Church: A local church previously established by the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel that has elected, with Board approval, to have a legal existence apart from that of the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel and to affiliate with the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel by mutual agreement in a covenant relationship which obligates the local church to operate by the Bylaws of the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel, with the rights and duties pertaining thereto; or a local church not previously established by or associated with the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel that is a separate legal entity that has elected to affiliate with the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel by mutual agreement in a covenant relationship which obligates the local church to operate by the Bylaws of the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel, with the rights and duties pertaining thereto.
- 3.4 FOURSQUARE CONVENTION. An official gathering of the members called together by the president or Board of Directors to fellowship, to rejoice in what the Lord has done, to receive fresh anointing for the task ahead, and to conduct pending business. - 3.5 BOARD OF DIRECTORS. The official body of the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel (sometimes referred to hereafter as the “Board”) to oversee the carrying out of the objects and purposes and direction stated in the Articles and these Bylaws. These directors are collectively referred to as the Board. The Board shall consist of not less than 12 and not more than 25 members.
- 3.6 EXECUTIVE COUNCIL. A body of leaders from the Foursquare movement with the responsibility of advising on items to be placed on the agenda for meetings of the members of the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel. This group acts in an advisory capacity to the president and the Board of Directors on all other matters brought before it by the Board of Directors.

The Association is in no way designed or intended to function as an unincorporated association or to be a separate legal or jural entity. The Board shall have the power to determine the requirements, procedures and regulations of membership and participation in the Foursquare Association. The Association shall have no bylaws or separate governing board and shall hold no assets. Members of the Association may not hold themselves out as agents for one another or of the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel on the basis of membership in the Association. The Foursquare Association is not an agency of the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel.

A. Church membership in the Association is comprised of:

1. Local Foursquare churches, as defined herein above.
2. Community churches. A Community church is a local church which is a separate legal entity governed by its own organizational documents and structure that elects to affiliate with the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel and other churches of the Foursquare Association on a relational basis of shared belief and adherence to the values stated in the Foursquare Global Distinctives and Values. Community churches are completely autonomous and independent legal entities. International Church of the Foursquare Gospel shall have no control over the governance or management of any Community church. Community churches select, hire, and license and/or ordain their ministers and other personnel and employees. International Church of the Foursquare Gospel shall have no control or say in the day-to-day decisions of any Community church. International Church of the Foursquare Gospel and its members, directors, officers and agents shall not be held liable for the debts, obligations or liabilities of any Community church. The relationship between a Community church and the Association is a voluntary relationship that may be ended by the Community church, the Association or the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel at-will. Community churches and personnel are not agents of the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel or the Foursquare Association, or vice versa.

A local church not a Foursquare church may affiliate with the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel and other churches of the Foursquare Association as a Community church by making successful application and by paying any fee determined by the Board of the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel. Approval of the application is the decision of the Board. 1. Foursquare licensed and ordained ministers. Licensed and ordained ministers of the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel

2. Community Ministers. Community ministers are ministers not licensed or ordained by the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel who voluntarily elect to associate with the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel and Foursquare ministers solely on a relational basis. The relationship between the Foursquare Association and a Community minister is a voluntary relationship that may be ended by the minister, the Association or the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel at will. Community ministers are not agents of the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel or the Foursquare Association, or vice versa.

A minister of the Gospel who is not a licensed or ordained Foursquare minister may affiliate with the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel and other ministers of the Foursquare Association as a Community minister by making successful application and by paying any fee determined by the Board of the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel. Approval of the application is the decision of the Board. Upon approval, a Community minister may self-identify as “a Community minister of the Foursquare Association” so long as the minister is a member in good standing.

3.9 FOURSQUARE GLOBAL DISTINCTIVES AND VALUES:

- A. Kingdom Partnerships
We will work alongside other Christians and churches. We will be a distinct movement, but will also hold a collegial spirit and maintain a helpful and cooperative posture with whom we can partner in mission.
- B. Sound Doctrine
The Declaration of Faith of the Foursquare Church will guide our practice, church polity, and call of believers into the work of the Kingdom. It will be a biblical statement, apply to all members, and be the Declaration of Faith for all churches and all member nations. Its roots are deeply rooted in the sole source of spiritual authority – the Word of God.
- C. Empowering Leadership
According to God’s gifting and calling, we will intentionally prepare and release men and women across generations and cultures into all positions of leadership and areas of ministry.
- D. Family Relationships
We will relate to each other with love in our Global Family. We acknowledge that relationships are the heart of God’s Kingdom and will extend grace to fellow believers through ministry, cooperation and mutual submission in our global church.
- E. Spirit Empowerment
As a Spirit-filled movement, we will consistently minister the Baptism of the Holy Spirit, and teach and encourage believers to fully express the gifts of the Spirit in their daily lives. We totally submit ourselves in obedience to the Spirit’s use of our lives and His miraculous works in our day.

F. Shared Mission

We will focus our mission and ministry efforts on multiplying disciples, leaders, churches and national movements. Holding to God’s passion for the lost, we will seek a movement of evangelism, mercy ministries, contextualized church planting and mobilizing indigenous believers in ministry among all peoples.

- 3.10 CHURCH COUNCIL. The Church Council of a Foursquare church, consists of the pastor and four to 12 persons elected or ratified from the church membership except where by written approval of the district supervisor the number of persons has been increased or decreased. The Church Council shares the stewardship of the financial assets and property of a Foursquare church with the senior pastor. For a Covenant church, the term “Church Council” is the functional equivalent of the board of directors, board of trustees, board of elders, etc. of the Covenant church’s legal entity and shall serve as the “Church Council.”

 - 5. If timely, the approval of a person to fill the office of the president. The candidates shall be submitted by the Cabinet.
 - 6. Proposed amendments to this corporation's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws.

D. Delayed Voting. Any proposed amendment to the corporation's Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws, any proposal not previously presented to the Executive Council, or any proposal that requires provision for or the expenditure of funds not included in the corporation's current annual budget shall not be voted upon until the day following the day upon which it is introduced on the floor during a business session of the regular convention. Only when the delay of one day would be deemed harmful to the corporation may the deferral be waived by a two-thirds vote of the authorized voters present at the time of the vote.

5.4 CONDUCT OF INTERIM CONVENTIONS. The president or the officer or other person selected to serve as the chairperson (selected in the manner provided for regular conventions) shall preside at interim conventions. The only matters to be considered at an interim convention shall be those designated in the notice of the interim convention.

5.5 MEMBERS ENTITLED TO VOTE ON CONVENTION BUSINESS. The members of this corporation who shall have full voting power on all matters considered at regular and interim conventions are those members who are registered for the convention and who belong to at least one of the following categories:

- A. Officers and directors of the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel
- B. Licensed ministers of the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel holding active status under the provision of these Bylaws at the time the convention convenes or when an absentee ballot is requested. However, a minister whose credential fees are not paid at the time the convention convenes or when an absentee ballot is requested will not be privileged to vote.
- C. Delegates from Foursquare churches: one delegate for each 50 members or fraction thereof from each Foursquare church located in the United States of America.

5.6 NONVOTING ATTENDEES. At the discretion of the Board, all nonvoting attendees who are registered at any regular or interim convention may be admitted to any corporate business session.

5.7 CONVENTION VOTING PROCEDURES

- A. Registration. To be entitled to vote, members shall register to be in attendance at convention or, in an election year, register to cast a ballot for president by absentee ballot. Registered voting members shall display valid voting delegate credentials, and shall be entitled to one vote on each item presented. There shall not be voting by proxy at any convention.
- B. Quorum. A majority of registered voting members in attendance at a convention shall constitute a quorum at a convention. At conventions where a vote for president shall be conducted, the number of members who registered to cast an absentee ballot for president shall be included in the determination of whether the convention has attained a quorum. The voting members present at a convention at which a quorum has been established may continue to transact business until final adjournment of the convention at its originally scheduled termination date. If the withdrawal of voting members leaves less than a quorum, any action (other than amending the Bylaws or Articles of Incorporation) may be approved by at least a majority of the voting members present at the time of the vote.

- C. Voting. Where voting at the convention is required by these Bylaws to approve the selection of persons to serve as directors, officers, and members of national Cabinets and councils, such voting shall be by written ballot or, if authorized by the Board pursuant to these Bylaws, by electronic ballot capable of being saved, retrieved and printed. Voting on other matters shall be conducted in the manner determined by the chairperson. The secretary of the corporation shall cause all votes to be counted and shall report the results to the convention body. A ballot that is illegible, does not indicate a selection, or by write-in indicates a person not nominated by the Cabinet, shall not be counted as a “vote cast.” All ballots shall be retained for not less than 30 days. In order to be approved, candidates must receive a majority of the votes cast for the positions for which they have been selected. As long as quorum requirements have been met, resolutions receiving a majority vote shall be declared as passed.

5.8 VOTING BY MAIL

- A. Special Action. In the event an action taken by the Board requires the approval of this corporation’s voting members, and if in the opinion of the Board it would be impractical to wait for a regular convention or to call an interim convention, the Board, by two-thirds majority vote, may submit the resolution by mail to the corporation’s voting members for approval. The resolution shall be mailed to each voting member not less than 30 days prior to the last date authorized for its return to the corporation. The resolution shall be accompanied by a form of ballot upon which there shall be a place to indicate a “yes” or “no” vote and a place for the signature and title of the voter. The notice to qualified voters shall state the date on or before which the ballots must be received by the corporation in order to be counted.
- B. Voter Eligibility. As long as they continue to meet the requirements applicable to voting members, all voting members shall remain such for the purpose of voting by mail, as herein provided, from the date of registration at a regular convention until 30 days prior to the date set for the next regular or interim convention.
- C. Vote Counting. All ballots returned within the allotted time for voting shall be counted by the secretary or by the secretary’s authorized representative(s). The results shall be reported by the secretary at the next meeting of the Board and recorded in the Board’s minutes. The results shall be published, and the ballots received by the corporation shall be kept until the adjournment of the next regular convention.

5.9 ABSENTEE VOTING FOR PRESIDENT.

The Board may authorize and direct the corporate secretary to implement procedures to allow and facilitate absentee voting for the office of president by the members described in Bylaw Article V, Sections 5.5.A. and B.

- A. Vote by Mail. To vote by mail, an eligible member must register for convention and request an absentee ballot, and return the ballot within time limits communicated by the corporate secretary. All ballots returned within the allotted time for voting shall be counted by an independent accounting firm selected by the corporate secretary and vote tabulation results reported to the corporate secretary at the same time the tally of ballots cast on-site at convention are reported. The number of ballots cast by mail shall be reported by the secretary to the convention and recorded in the convention's minutes. The results of the election shall be published, and the ballots received by the corporation shall be kept until the adjournment of the next regular convention.

- B. Electronic Voting. The corporate secretary may implement and publicize procedures to allow and facilitate absentee voting electronically. To vote electronically, an eligible member must register for convention and request to vote for president electronically, and electronically transmit their ballot within the time limits communicated by the corporate secretary. All ballots transmitted electronically within the allotted time for voting shall be counted by an independent accounting firm selected by the corporate secretary and vote tabulation results reported to the corporate secretary. The number of ballots cast electronically shall be reported by the secretary at the convention and recorded in the convention's minutes. Ballots transmitted electronically must be capable of being saved, retrieved and printed. The results of the election shall be published, and the ballots received by the corporation shall be kept until the adjournment of the next regular convention.

ARTICLE VI Board of Directors

- 6.1 POWERS AND DUTIES. Subject to the Articles, these Bylaws, and applicable law, the corporate activities of the corporation shall be conducted and all corporate powers shall be employed by or under the direction of the Board. The Board is responsible for discipline as well as general corporate management. The Board may delegate the management of various activities to any person or persons provided that the activities and affairs of the corporation shall be managed and corporate powers shall be exercised under the direction of the Board. No director, officer, minister, member, Church Council, Foursquare Association church, employee of the foregoing, or employee of any other entity within this corporation is empowered to act as a legal agent of the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel without the prior written authorization of the Board, except for acts expressly authorized in these Bylaws. In addition to the other powers enumerated in these Bylaws, the Board shall have the following powers:
- A. To call conventions.
 - B. To license and ordain ministers in accordance with the Articles and these Bylaws. However, the granting of ministerial credentials shall not confer any agency authority to act on behalf of this corporation.
 - C. To appoint the corporation's officers, both general and executive (excluding its president, who shall be selected in the manner provided in these Bylaws); missionaries; councils; committees; and chairpersons thereof. The Board may seek input from any segment or area of the Foursquare movement concerning its plans or the selection of personnel to fill its offices.
 - D. To create offices, departments, and districts as needed to accomplish the corporation's objectives and purposes, and to direct their activities.

- E. To employ persons as needed to accomplish the corporation's objects and purposes, taking into account the broad constituency of the Foursquare movement.
- F. To fix salaries and other compensation of the corporation's officers and other employees who are to receive salaries or other compensation for their services.
- G. To terminate from office or employment any officer (excluding the president, who may be terminated only upon the recommendation of the Cabinet in the manner provided for in these Bylaws) or other corporate employee if, in the opinion of a majority of the Board, such termination would be in the best interests of this corporation.
- H. To override a presidential veto by a two-thirds majority vote of all Board members.
- I. To make financial arrangements to carry out the purposes of this corporation and to authorize the execution by the proper corporate officers of securities or evidences of indebtedness or other documents as required.
- J. To buy, sell, exchange, encumber, and generally deal in real properties, improved or unimproved.
- K. To acquire and operate Bible colleges or auxiliary endeavors. The Board may adopt bylaws governing such operations. The Board may establish a separate board of trustees for each college.
- L. The Board, through the corporation's executive officers, departments, committees or other subsidiary corporations, shall oversee the operations, programs, policies, funds and other resources of The Foursquare Church.
- M. To do and perform other acts and things required of it by these Bylaws and/or applicable law, with all powers necessary therefore.

6.2 NUMBER OF DIRECTORS. The number of directors shall be not less than 12 and not more than 25. The Board shall fix the exact authorized number of directors from time to time, within the limits specified within this Section.

6.3 COMPOSITION OF THE BOARD. The Board shall be composed of the following officers, selected directors, and appointed directors, each of whom shall at all times be a member in good standing of a local Foursquare church. The number of directors serving on the Board who are regularly compensated by the central office, a district office or any wholly owned subsidiary of the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel shall not exceed five. No person directly related by blood or marriage to a district supervisor or an executive officer of the corporation may serve as a director.

- A. Officers: The following corporate officers shall be members of the Board: the president and the vice presidents who oversee national church operations, global church operations, and corporate administrative operations of the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel.

- B. Selected Directors. A representative shall be selected from each district to serve a five-year term and until his or her successor is duly selected.

Nominees to serve as a director from the district shall be selected from among the ministers of the district. Each nominee shall be a currently licensed and ordained minister in good standing and shall be under appointment to a local Foursquare church in the district that the minister will represent.

The selection of district representative nominees shall be conducted as follows: (1) ministers of the district who hold current ordination or U.S. Foursquare license shall be given the opportunity to recommend to the district supervisor the names of qualified ministers. (2) The district supervisor and the district council shall select three nominees to be voted on by the ministers of the district. Selections shall be based upon criteria provided by the Board. The district supervisor shall transmit the names of the nominees to the corporate secretary.

The ministers who will serve as the directors from the districts shall be selected from among the nominees previously selected from districts by an election conducted by the corporate secretary. The ministers in the district who hold current ordination or U.S. Foursquare license shall vote by mail, according to instructions from the corporate secretary to select from among the nominees the ministers to serve as the representative directors. Alternatively, such voting, if authorized by the Board pursuant to these Bylaws, may be by electronic ballot capable of being saved, retrieved and printed.

A ballot that is illegible, does not indicate a selection, or by write-in indicates a person not nominated, shall not be counted as a “vote cast.” All ballots shall be retained for not less than 30 days. In order to be approved, candidates must receive a majority of the votes cast for the positions for which they have been selected. An independent accounting firm that has been selected by the corporation’s secretary shall oversee the tallying of the ballots. Voting procedures shall be established and supervised by the secretary, who shall certify the results to the Board and the district.

A selected director’s term shall commence on September 1, or as soon thereafter as the selection has been certified by the corporation’s secretary, and shall continue through August 31 of the fifth year thereafter. No director may be elected to serve consecutive terms of office. No director shall concurrently serve as a selected or appointed member of the Cabinet.

When a director becomes ineligible to serve on the Board of directors because of a geographical move from the district that elected the director, the director shall be deemed to have resigned. The effective date of resignation may be delayed by the Board, in its discretion, to allow completion of the resigning director’s current term, so long as the resignation is effective within one year of the date of the director’s relocation from the district that elected the director.

Should the seat of a selected director become vacant before the expiration of that director’s term, the Board shall appoint one of the final nominees previously selected by the ministers of the district to serve the remainder of the unexpired term.

- C. Appointed Directors. Members in good standing of a local Foursquare church may be appointed as directors by the Board (not to exceed the maximum number of directors) for a term of five years. Reappointment of appointed directors shall be subject to approval by a majority of votes cast at a regular convention occurring prior to the expiration of the appointed director's initial or subsequent term as a director. The Cabinet shall ratify, by majority vote, directors appointed to the Board. No person who fails to be ratified may continue to serve as an appointed director. Failure to be ratified shall not negate any prior vote cast by an appointed director. An appointed director's term shall commence on September 1 and shall continue through August 31 of the fifth year thereafter, provided the appointment was ratified as required.
- D. Resignation by change of location or position. A director becomes ineligible to serve on the Board of directors when a director relocates geographically from the district that elected the director, or when the director takes a position for which the director is regularly compensated by the central office, a district office or any wholly owned subsidiary of the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel, and when their continued service on the Board would cause the number of such regularly compensated directors to exceed five. In such case, the director shall be deemed to have resigned. At the discretion of the Board, the effective date of resignation may be delayed for up to one year.
- E. Staggered Term Limits. The Board shall coordinate the ending of the terms of its various members, excluding the president, such that no more than one third of the Board shall have terms ending in any given calendar year.

6.4 BOARD NONVOTING PARTICIPANTS

- A. Designated Nonvoting Participants. The Board shall assign permanent seats as nonvoting participants at its meetings and conference calls to the following representatives: the president of Life Pacific University; the Foursquare Endowment Fund department director; and the Foursquare Resource Development department director.
- B. Other Nonvoting Participants. The Board may invite persons or appoint persons of specific expertise or insight, as well as persons representing other administrative departments or legal entities controlled by or affiliated with The Foursquare Church, to serve as nonvoting participants in Board deliberations. The term of service shall not exceed one year, but the term(s) may be renewed, if the Board so chooses, to a maximum of five consecutive terms.

6.5 RIGHTS AND PRIVILEGES. All directors shall enjoy the same rights and privileges, including the power to vote on all matters presented to the Board; however, a director may not vote on any matter in which there may be a conflict of interest. All nonvoting participants may participate fully in Board deliberations, except for the right to propose a motion, second a motion or vote.

6.6 VACANCIES. Any director, excepting the last remaining director, may resign, effective upon giving written notice to the president, the secretary, or the Board unless the notice specifies a later time for the effectiveness of such resignation. If the resignation is to be effective at a future time, a successor may be selected or appointed in the manner provided in these Bylaws to take office when the resignation becomes effective. Vacancies among the appointed members of the Board may be filled by approval of the remaining members of the Board. Each director so chosen shall hold office until the expiration of the term of the replaced director and until a successor has been chosen. A vacancy or vacancies in the Board shall be deemed to exist in case of the death, resignation, or removal of any director, or if the authorized number of directors be increased. No reduction of the authorized number of directors shall have the effect of removing any director prior to the expiration of the director's term of office.

- 6.7 REMOVAL. If the Board determines that a director, other than the president, is failing to function in the best interests of this corporation, the Board shall have the power to remove the director by a two-thirds vote of the Board.
- 6.8 PLACE OF MEETING. Regular or special meetings of the Board shall be held at any place within or without the bounds of the State of California, which may be designated from time to time by the Board. In the absence of such designation, regular meetings shall be held at the principal office of the corporation.
- 6.9 REGULAR MEETINGS. The Board shall determine the schedule of regular meetings and shall be responsible to inform each director of the time and place of each meeting.
- 6.10 SPECIAL MEETINGS. Special meetings of the Board for any purpose or purposes may be called at any time by the chairperson or by a majority of the Board. Special meetings of the Board shall be held upon four days' notice by first-class mail or 48 hours' notice delivered personally or by telephone or electronic means.
- 6.11 QUORUM. A majority of the members of the Board shall constitute a quorum of the Board for the transaction of business. Every act or decision done or made by a majority of the directors present at a meeting duly held at which a quorum is present shall be regarded as the act of the Board, unless a greater number be required by law or by the Articles or these Bylaws.

ARTICLE VII

Executive Officers

All executive officers shall be chosen from among ordained Foursquare ministers who are in full compliance with the Articles and these Bylaws and who have demonstrated spiritual leadership and ability to perform the duties of the offices to which they are appointed. They shall be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of the president and the Board, except for the president who shall be selected in accordance with these Bylaws. - H. The president shall oversee the corporation's compliance with laws, rules, and regulations applicable to this corporation, including the signing and filing of reports for federal, state, and local governments.
- I. The president shall be an ex officio member of all committees.

7.1.2 Procedures for Selecting the President. When the office of president has or will become vacant due to resignation, retirement, death, removal, expiration of the president's term of office, or for any other reason, the Cabinet shall select candidates for the office of president as set forth in these Bylaws.

A. Minister Participation.

- 1. Each licensed minister shall be given opportunity to submit the names of two nominees to an accounting firm designated by the corporate secretary for confidential tally.

2. The accounting firm shall provide the corporate secretary and the Board with the names of the 25 individuals receiving the most nominations from the ministers in alphabetical order. The number of nominations each received will be included in the report.
 3. The list of the 25 individuals receiving the most nominations shall be provided to the Cabinet at the special session of Cabinet in January. The list shall not be made available to the Cabinet any sooner so as to protect these individuals from undue pressure.
 4. The Cabinet retains the right to nominate whomever they choose.
- B. Preparation of Cabinet Members. The corporate secretary shall provide each Cabinet member with a job description of the president’s duties and a copy of the presidential selection process, at least two months prior to the Cabinet meeting. In order to prepare to participate in the selection of candidates for Foursquare president, each member of Cabinet:
1. Shall review the powers and duties for the office of president and the procedures for selecting the president set forth in these Bylaws.
 2. Shall be encouraged to pray and fast.
- C. Special Session of Cabinet Convened.
1. A special session of the Cabinet shall be convened in January for the purpose of selecting nominees for president. The chairperson of the Board or other person designated by the Board shall moderate the session.
 2. A quorum of the Cabinet shall be established and the number announced.
 3. The moderator shall distribute a copy of the presidential selection process.
- D. Formation of the Nominee Review Committee.
1. Before the nomination process begins an ad hoc “nominee review committee” shall be formed. There shall be one person from each district on the committee. The corporate secretary shall chair the committee.
 - 1.1. Cabinet members will gather together briefly with those from their district to elect from among themselves a representative to this committee.
 - 1.2. The supervisor of each district, or a designee, should chair the meeting.
 - 1.3. The name of the representative who is chosen will be reported to the moderator of the Cabinet.

2. The nominee review committee shall:
 - 2.1. Tally the votes cast for nominees, and
 - 2.2. Interview the nominees.
 3. Each committee member must signify in writing their agreement to hold all personal information learned about the nominees as strictly confidential information, not to be disclosed to any person, including a spouse, without the express consent of the nominees. Anyone unable or unwilling to make such written pledge shall be excused and an alternate selected.
- E. Candidate Nomination. The Cabinet shall nominate two or three candidates for the office of president for placement on the ballot at convention. The process for nominating candidates shall proceed as follows:
1. At the special session, the list of the 25 persons receiving the most minister nominations shall be presented.
 2. Each Cabinet member shall nominate two names, using a written ballot. These names need not be drawn from the list of 25 receiving the most minister nominations.
 3. The names of persons receiving Cabinet member nomination shall be tallied by the nominee review committee and the 25 persons receiving the most Cabinet member nominations shall be posted, ranked in order from highest number of nomination votes received to the lowest.
- F. Nominee Review. Once the list of 25 names has been posted, the special session of Cabinet may be recessed by the moderator and a regular Cabinet meeting convened so the Cabinet may conduct any other business it may have in a regular Cabinet meeting. Meanwhile the nominee review committee shall begin interviewing the 25 nominees. As much as possible, the interviews will be conducted in-person while the Cabinet is in session. Otherwise, teleconference interviews may be conducted. The entire nominee review committee should strive to be present for each interview.
1. The nominee review committee's role is solely to inquire of each nominee concerning these personal matters to determine if there is cause to disqualify. If opinions differ, a committee vote shall be taken. The corporate secretary shall also vote in case of a tie.
 2. Committee members shall not eliminate any nominee based on personal preference, but shall remain neutral and equitable toward all.
 3. The qualifying process shall begin with the nominee receiving the highest number of nomination votes, and shall proceed then to the next highest nominee and so forth until all nominees have been reviewed.
 4. The nominee review committee shall ask each nominee the following questions:

- 4.1. “Are you willing to serve?”
- 4.2. “Do you or your spouse have any serious health issues?”
- 4.3. “Do you have any serious marital problems?”
- 4.4. “Do you have any serious legal or financial problems or debt?”
- 4.5. “Is there anything about your life which, if it came to light, could jeopardize your leadership in this office?”
- 4.6. “Are you and have you demonstrated a consistent commitment to the expectations of a minister as outlined in the Foursquare Bylaws (such as the extension tithing and support of FMI)?”

5. When the nominee review committee has completed its work, the Cabinet moderator shall be notified and the moderator shall reconvene the special Cabinet meeting. The names of those nominees who have been qualified by the nominee review committee will then be reported to the Cabinet. The Cabinet shall then vote their preference and a final list of nominees created ranked from the highest number of votes to the lowest.

- 5.1. Each nominee shall be given time to pray and discuss with their spouse and other trusted friends their willingness to serve as president.
- 5.2. Not later than two weeks after adjournment of the special Cabinet meeting each nominee shall confirm his or her availability to serve as president, if elected. Absent extreme extenuating circumstances, a nominee failing to respond shall be deemed unavailable to serve as president.
- 5.3. At the next regular Cabinet meeting the four nominees who received greatest number of nomination votes and who have indicated their willingness to serve as president shall be interviewed by the Cabinet.

G. Cabinet Nomination Meeting. On the first day of the regular Cabinet meeting in March, selection of two or three candidates for placement on the convention ballot for the office of president shall be a priority item of business on the meeting agenda. The procedure for this agenda item of business shall be the same as that followed at the previous special Cabinet meeting.

1. The chairperson of the Board or other person designated by the Board shall moderate the meeting.
2. A quorum shall be established and the number reported.
3. The moderator shall distribute a written description of the presidential selection process.

4. The Cabinet members will be given the names of the four nominees to be interviewed. These names will not be made public sooner so as to protect the families and congregations of the nominees from unnecessary disruption.
5. Before commencement of nominee interviews, the Cabinet shall determine by vote whether to place two or three candidates on the convention ballot. The moderator shall allow adequate time for the Cabinet to deliberate on this matter.

H. Nominee Interviews. Nominee interviews before Cabinet shall be conducted as follows:

1. Each of the four nominees and their spouse shall be interviewed in alphabetical order based on the first letter of their last name.
2. As a nominee is being interviewed, other nominees and their spouses shall not be present.
3. Each nominee shall initially respond to five questions. The nominee shall not be interrupted for questions or comments. The questions are:
 - 3.1. Do you fully subscribe to the Foursquare Declaration of Faith (as compiled by Aimee Semple McPherson)?”
 - 3.2. Briefly describe your history as a minister.” (The nominee may hand out or electronically display a resume, if desired.)
 - 3.3. Have you been faithful in belief and practice to the mission, financial support and polity of The Foursquare Church as set forth in the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel?”
 - 3.4. Describe the role of the Foursquare president, as you understand it.”
 - 3.5. Describe four action steps you believe The Foursquare Church needs to take in the near future.”
4. Each nominee will begin by answering the five standard questions above without being interrupted for questioning.
5. When a nominee’s response is complete, the moderator shall invite the Cabinet to ask any questions they wish of the nominee. A nominee, however, may decline to answer any particular question.
6. When the moderator or a member of Cabinet feels that sufficient information about a nominee has been brought forth, he or she may move that the interview of that individual be closed. The motion must receive a second and a majority vote to be adopted.

7. This process shall continue until all committee-approved nominees remaining from the original list of four have been interviewed.

I. Final Voting for Placement on the Convention Ballot. The names of the two or three nominees who receive the most votes will be placed on the voter ballot at convention for the office of president. To be placed on the ballot a nominee must be approved by two thirds of the Cabinet. Cabinet voting shall be conducted as follows:

1. Each Cabinet member shall vote by written ballot for one candidate. If a nominee is a member of Cabinet, the nominee shall not vote on his or her own nomination.
2. Voting shall continue until the requisite number of nominees, each with a two-thirds approval, emerge. Each time a vote is taken, a Cabinet member may cast only one vote.
3. Between votes, the Cabinet may continue to deliberate to gain consensus. During deliberations, the nominees shall not be present.

J. Convention Voting Procedures

1. Each nominee shall have (a) demonstrated faithfulness to Foursquare mission, doctrine, and polity as set forth in the Articles, these Bylaws, and the “Declaration of Faith”; (b) a proven ability to understand, appreciate, and lead within the Foursquare movement; (c) a reputation as a person of maturity, integrity, and good moral character; (d) a proven pastoral heart, Foursquare missions vision, evangelistic fervor, and servant leadership; and (e) a record of long-term and proven ministry, and shall have exemplified those core values that have characterized the spirit of the Foursquare family. Names of the nominees so nominated shall be made known to each Foursquare church located in the United States of America and to the members described in Bylaw Article V, Sections 5.5 A. and B. at least 45 days prior to convention. Names of the nominees so nominated shall be presented to the members authorized to vote at the convention or by absentee ballot for written or electronic balloting. Ballots shall be counted by an independent accounting firm selected by the corporate secretary and vote tabulation results reported to the corporate secretary. If a second ballot is required to select from among three nominees, the nominee receiving the least number of votes on the initial ballot shall not appear on the second ballot. A ballot that is illegible, does not indicate a selection, or by write-in indicates a person not nominated by the Cabinet, or not received within the allotted time, shall not be counted as a “vote cast.” The corporate secretary shall inform the candidates of the result of the vote privately, before it is announced publicly. The public announcement shall not include the number of votes received. Election results shall be announced to the convention body in the first evening service of the convention after the results are known.
2. On the first full day of convention a business session shall be convened for the express purpose of electing a president from among the candidates nominated by the Cabinet. The Cabinet’s nominees for the office of president shall be presented to the convention body. The Board shall have discretion to vary from time to time the format for presenting the nominees to the convention provided that in each election the nominees have an opportunity to address the convention and the voters in attendance at the convention have opportunity to pose questions to the nominees regarding any topic relevant to doctrine, practice, the Foursquare movement or the office of president. However, nominees shall not be questioned about personal matters since such matters were already reviewed in the Cabinet's nominating deliberations.

3. When the presentation and interview of the nominees has been completed, the names of the nominees so nominated shall be presented to the authorized voters at the convention-for balloting. Ballots shall be counted by an independent accounting firm selected by the corporate secretary and vote tabulation results reported to the corporate secretary. If a second ballot is required to select from among three nominees, the nominee receiving the least number of votes on the initial ballot shall not appear on the second ballot. A ballot that is illegible, does not indicate a selection, or by write-in indicates a person not nominated by the Cabinet, or not received within the allotted time, shall not be counted as a "vote cast." The corporate secretary shall inform the candidates of the result of the vote privately, before it is announced publicly. The public announcement shall not include the number of votes received. Election results shall be announced to the convention body in the first evening service of the convention after the results are known.
 4. The nominee receiving a majority of the votes cast shall be deemed president-elect. An oath of office shall be administered to the president-elect on the last evening of convention immediately preceding the date when the president-elect takes office as president. The president-elect shall take office as president on the first day of the fourth month following the close of the convention. The term of president shall be for the ensuing five years and until a successor shall be duly elected and qualified.
 5. In the event that the president, in the year before the final year of the president's term of office, gives advance written notice to the Cabinet before it meets of his or her willingness to be considered for a second term of office, the Cabinet may choose to recommend to the convention that it ratify the president for a second term of office at the following convention by written ratification ballot. The Cabinet may or may not choose to recommend to the convention that it ratify the president for a second term of office at the following convention by written ratification ballot. A recommendation by the Cabinet to the convention that the president be ratified for a second term requires a two-thirds approval vote of the Cabinet. The president shall be ratified for a second term of office by vote of 75 percent (75%) of the votes cast at convention including authorized absentee votes cast. If the president is ratified for a second term in the final year of the president's first term, no presidential selection process will be conducted.
- K. President-elect. When a president in the year before the final year of the president's term of office, gives advance written notice to the Cabinet before it meets of his or her unwillingness to be considered for a second term of office, or when a president is serving a second term of office, the process for selecting a president-elect shall be done in the fourth year of the president's term rather than the final year. This will result in the president-elect being determined more than a year before the president-elect takes office as president.

The board shall determine, with the consent of the president-elect, the length of the term for serving in a compensated role as president-elect. The term shall conclude on the day the president-elect is to take office as president and shall not exceed 12 months. The board shall also determine the appropriate compensation for serving as a president-elect. The president-elect shall:

1. Accomplish an orderly transition from current responsibilities
2. Learn and become oriented to the role and responsibilities of the office of president,
3. Serve as a nonvoting participant on the Board and all Board committees.

7.1.3 President's Term Limit. No person may serve more than two consecutive terms of office as president. Upon leaving office, the outgoing president may be appointed by the Board to another place of service in the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel. The Board shall determine compensation protocols to guide, inform, and assist the transition of a president leaving office.

7.1.4 Removal. If, during a president's term of office, the Board decides that a president is failing to function in the best interests of this corporation, the Board shall have the power to call a meeting of the Cabinet to seek a satisfactory solution. The Cabinet, by majority vote, shall recommend action to the Board, which may include removing the president from office. If the Board, on the recommendation of the Cabinet, votes to remove the person holding the office of president from that office, the procedures set forth in these Bylaws shall be followed to select a new president.

7.1.5 Selection of Interim President. When the office of president has or will become vacant due to resignation, retirement, death, or for any other reason, the Board shall select one of its voting members to serve as interim president; this person shall serve until the next president is selected in the manner herein set forth and approved. The Board shall make its selection of interim president using a process substantially similar to the process stated in Article VII, Section 7.1.2 ("Procedures for Selecting the President"). A special meeting of the Board will be called to begin the selection process. Prior to the meeting the directors will review the Bylaws and prepare spiritually. At the meeting nominations for the person to serve as interim president will be received. Thereafter a review committee will be formed to review the qualifications of the nominees and interview them. Nominees are excluded from serving on the review committee. At a subsequent Board meeting the review committee will present its recommendations and the Board will vote to select an interim president. Nominees shall recuse themselves from deliberations and from voting. The person receiving the most votes shall be designated as the interim president. The Board will endeavor to complete this process as expeditiously as possible.

The person chosen to serve as interim president may not be considered as a candidate for selection of the next president unless approved as a candidate by three-fourth's approval of the Cabinet in its selection process.

If the nominee selection process for a new president cannot be reasonably completed by the next regular convention, the Board may delay the convention vote to an interim convention or to the following regular convention thereafter. The Board-appointed interim president will continue to serve, with ratification at the next regular convention, until a president-elect takes office. If the interim president is not ratified by the convention body, the Board shall select from its own members another interim president to serve until a president-elect takes office.

7.2 OTHER EXECUTIVE OFFICERS. The offices of vice presidents, secretary, assistant secretary, and treasurer shall be filled by appointment of the Board. These officers shall serve at the pleasure of the Board and until their respective successors are duly appointed and installed. The installation of a new officer shall terminate the appointment of the previous officeholder, who shall deliver all books, papers, electronic data, and documents to the successor so installed.

7.2.1 Vice Presidents. In the temporary absence or disability of the president, the Board shall designate a vice president to perform all the duties of the president as president pro tempore and when so acting shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the president. The vice president designated as president pro tempore shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as from time to time may be prescribed by the Board. In other respects, a vice president shall have such duties as may be assigned to him or her by the president and/or the Board.

 - B. Ministry Extension Tithe Fund. Foursquare churches embrace the biblical principle and blessing of tithing. This is expressed by Foursquare churches setting aside ten percent of the tithes and offerings received locally as a church tithe, referred to as the "Ministry Extension Tithe Fund." The Board may receive and/or allow to be retained locally the Ministry Extension Tithe Fund. Amounts of the Ministry Extension Tithe Fund authorized by the Board to be retained by the local church shall be used for missional activity. Local churches shall provide to their district offices annual reports regarding the use of those retained funds. 9.2.3 Endowment Fund. This fund shall initially consist of the funds on hand from Foursquare Foundation at the transition of Foursquare Foundation to International Church of the Foursquare Gospel. This fund shall be known as the Endowment Fund.

- A. Purpose of Fund. The Endowment Fund is established to accomplish the dual objectives of providing a "spend" for the Board to use to fund the mission of The Foursquare Church while at the same time securing and growing the Endowment Fund in perpetuity so it will also benefit future generations of The Foursquare Church.
- B. Administration of Fund. The Board is ultimately responsible for the management of the Endowment Fund and the use of the money generated by the Endowment Fund, but shall empower a standing committee of the Board to manage the Endowment Fund, and a standing committee to advise on how to use the annual spend from the Endowment Fund. The management committee shall have members with proven business acumen and experience in various fields of investment and portfolio management, as well as a dedication to the advancement of the purposes of International Church of the Foursquare Gospel. The Board, with guidance and recommendation from the management committee, shall establish an investment policy for the Endowment Fund, which policy shall contain a spend policy. The investment policy and spend policy shall be designed to meet the purposes stated above. The spend policy will determine how much money from the Endowment Fund may be spent each calendar year. The Board may not increase the authorized spend policy without approval from the convention body.
- C. Reporting of Fund. Each year at convention, a report shall be presented to the convention body reporting: (1) the current spend policy of the Endowment Fund; (2) a change to the spend policy, if any is recommended, that the Board would request the convention body approve; (3) the current value of the Endowment Fund and the change in value from the prior two calendar year-ends; (4) the utilization and amount of the Endowment Fund spent during the prior calendar year; and (5) the amount of the Endowment Fund intended to be spent in the current calendar year.

The ministers for these ministries shall be selected by the Board and shall serve at its pleasure. The selection of the district Cabinet member shall be as follows: (1) Ministers of the district holding a current Foursquare license shall recommend the names of various qualified ministers to the district supervisor for consideration. All ballots shall be retained for not less than 30 days. In order to be approved, candidates must receive a majority of the votes cast for the positions for which they have been selected. An independent accounting firm selected by the corporation's secretary shall oversee the tallying of ballots. Voting procedures shall be established and supervised by the secretary, who shall certify the results to the Board and the district.

No Cabinet members selected in this manner shall serve consecutive terms of office. A selected district Cabinet member's term of office begins at the first regularly scheduled annual meeting of the Cabinet after the minister has been selected to serve, and shall continue until the next regularly scheduled annual meeting of the Cabinet after a successor is selected four years thereafter. The selection process should be initiated and concluded between September 1 and November 30 in the year the current term of office expires.

When a selected Cabinet member becomes ineligible to serve on the Cabinet because of a geographical move from the district that elected the Cabinet member, the Cabinet member shall be deemed to have resigned. The effective date of resignation may be delayed by the Board, in its discretion, to allow completion of the resigning Cabinet member's current term, so long as the resignation is effective within one year of the date of the Cabinet member's relocation from the district that elected the Cabinet member.

Should the seat of a selected Cabinet member become vacant before the expiration of the Cabinet member's term, the Board shall appoint one of the two final nominees previously selected by the ministers of the district to serve the remainder of the unexpired term.

- C. Members by Appointment. Other persons appointed to the Cabinet for a one-year term by the Board or the president with the approval of the Board. Local Foursquare Churches

The Board shall have the power to determine the requirements, procedures and regulations of every local Foursquare church. Requirements, procedures and regulations of Foursquare churches not stated herein below are to be found in other materials. At any point of potential conflict, these Bylaws shall control.

13.1 ESTABLISHING FOURSQUARE CHURCHES

- A. Newly Formed Foursquare Churches. Establishing a new Foursquare church within a district's geographical boundary requires the approval of the district supervisor.
- B. Incoming Churches. A local church not initially established by the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel may seek to become a local Foursquare church by making application. Approval of an application is solely within the discretion of the Board.

To apply to become a local Charter or Covenant Foursquare church, the applicant church shall

2. Take all necessary legal steps to be governed by the Articles and Bylaws of the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel and to be received as a local Foursquare church. Covenant church applicants shall satisfy this requirement by entering into an authorized covenant agreement with the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel.

Where there is not yet a Foursquare governing body within the receiving country, consent must be obtained from the Foursquare Regional Council.

13.2 PUBLIC IDENTIFICATION

- A. Trade Name. The word “Foursquare” is a registered trade name of the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel. Use of the trade name “Foursquare” is by consent of the Board of the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel, which consent may be withdrawn at any time by the Board in its discretion. Unauthorized use is prohibited.
- B. Names and Consent to Use Trade Name. Local Foursquare churches may use the name “Foursquare” (e.g. “a Foursquare church”; “Any town Foursquare Church”) and are encouraged to include the wording “Church of the Foursquare Gospel,” “Foursquare Church,” or “Foursquare Gospel Church,” in its identifications to the public. The selected wording shall be prominently displayed. The name of the city or community may be added to the church name, provided it does not conflict with the name of another local Foursquare church. Use of any slogan name requires prior approval of the district supervisor and the district council, the Church Council, and a majority of the church membership, according to national church office policies and procedures.

13.3 REQUIREMENTS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

- A. Each local Foursquare church shall
 1. Display in the main auditorium of the church the motto: “Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, and today, and forever” (Heb.13:8).
 2. Qualify applicants for church membership.
 3. Receive tithes and offerings for the ministry, maintenance, and expansion of the church. A tithe of the tithes and offerings received by the local church shall be designated as its “ministry extension tithe.” A Board-determined portion of the ministry extension tithe shall be retained by the local church and used for missional activity. Amounts of the extension tithe not retained by the local church shall be transmitted promptly each month, according to provided instructions.
 4. Contribute offerings monthly for the support of Foursquare Missions International’s Global Missions Fund, special world missions projects and locally funded Foursquare missionaries; and shall transmit missions offerings promptly, according to provided instructions.

13.4 DISCONTINUING A FOURSQUARE CHURCH. In extreme cases it may be in the best interests of the Foursquare movement for the Board to assume direct control over or close a Foursquare church either temporarily or permanently or to otherwise take other action, including suspension or dismissal of the pastor or the Church Council in accordance with these Bylaws.

A. Charter Churches. A Charter Foursquare church may be permanently or temporarily closed and its charter revoked by the Board, upon the recommendation of the district supervisor and the general supervisor, for any of the following reasons:

between the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel and the legal entity of the Covenant Foursquare church for any of the reasons stated above. When the covenant agreement is terminated, the church shall have no affiliation with the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel.

- D. Should a Charter church or District church desire to withdraw from Foursquare, the Church Council shall send a written notification to the district supervisor of the intent to withdraw, signed by the pastor and at least three-fourths (3/4) of the Church Council. The Church Council shall meet with the district supervisor or the supervisor's representative regarding the withdrawal and shall agree with the district supervisor/representative on a date to hold a congregational meeting to vote on the withdrawal. If there is no Church Council, then the notice shall be sent by the pastor, and the district supervisor or the supervisor's representative shall meet with the pastor. The district supervisor (or the supervisor's representative) shall attend the congregational meeting and be allowed to address the congregation prior to the vote. Upon a vote to withdraw of at least three-fourths (3/4) of the congregation at a duly noticed and called congregation meeting, the Board will consider the request of the church to withdraw and will decide on a disposition of the church assets as the Board deems appropriate. Until such time as the Board makes a determination, all assets of the church shall remain the property of International Church of the Foursquare Gospel. - 13.6 MARRIAGE. Marriage is a biblical covenant relationship between a man and a woman established initially by God. Among Christian people there are those who, before they were converted, became entangled in their marriage relations and do not see how these matters can be adjusted. In these cases, it is recommended that the matter be left in the hands of the Lord and that such people walk in the light according to the Word of God. High standards of marriage are very essential to the individual, to the family, and to the cause of Christ. In order to maintain high standards, divorce is discouraged.

APPENDIX

Minister's Code of Ethics

As an ordained or licensed minister or Christian worker, I subscribe in full to the contents of the "Declaration of Faith," compiled by Aimee Semple McPherson, Founder of the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel.

I declare myself in harmony with and bind myself to the objects, purposes and provisions of the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel.

I dedicate myself to the faithful performance of the ministry to which I have been called and will at all times strive for Christian unity.

I pledge to give the fullest consideration to my fellow ministers and to seek the best interest of the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel and the cause of Christ.

I agree that I am obligated by my divine call as a Christian and as a minister of the Gospel of Jesus Christ to abide by, in ministry and life, the biblical standards of integrity and morality to which all Christian leadership is accountable.

I agree to comply with the foundational principles, processes and procedures of the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel, as set forth in the following Board approved documents: "The Declaration of Faith," "Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel." I will exhort my fellow Foursquare ministers to uphold the principles of a holy life and to adhere to the foundational principles, processes and procedures of the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel.

Should I desire to publish literature bearing the Foursquare name, I will first obtain the approval of the Board of Directors of the International Church of the Foursquare Gospel.

Should I desire to enter into a transaction in which my personal interests or the interests of those related to me by blood or marriage may conflict with the interests of the Foursquare Church, or may appear to conflict, I will first fully disclose the details of the transaction and receive my district supervisor's approval before proceeding with the transaction.
